

The Health and Social Care Level 3 study programme is the equivalent of three A levels and is designed to meet the changing circumstances within the health and social care sectors. During the Health and Social Care programme, you will acquire transferable knowledge and skills whilst gaining up to 200 hours vocational experience in a variety of work-based settings. This programme offers an education in health and social care that can be utilised as a stepping stone for progression to undergraduate studies relating to a range of careers in this sector or towards employment.

BTEC LEVEL 3 HEALTH AND SOCIAL CARE

- ▶ Equality, Diversity and Rights
- ▶ Developing Effective Communication
- ▶ Development Through Life Stages
- ▶ Psychological and Sociological Perspectives
- ▶ Anatomy and Physiology
- ▶ Health, Safety and Security

COURSE CONTENT:

- ▶ On successful completion of the course you could enter employment in the healthcare industry or with further study you may want to look at a career in social work, nursing, midwifery, occupational therapy or teaching. On successful completion of the course you could progress to higher education or health and social care related professional training courses. For example; nursing, teaching, social work and occupational therapy.

WHAT CAN I DO NEXT?

